Examiner's Amendment and
Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance
Allowance

1. Office Action mailed on 11/22/04 has been withdrawn and this new Action was prepared based on the last amendment filed on 11/2/04.

2. An Examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this Examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Ehresman.

3. The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 24, line 1 "claim 24," has been replaced with -- claim 23 --.

4. The following is an Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

It appears that collectively references Bogard (4,861,092), Block et al. (6,234,559), Massey (6,616,210) and Bogard (6,082,806) teach all the claimed limitations except "the cover is of sufficient strength to support a significant top load". The primary reason for the allowance of the claims in this case, is the inclusion of the limitation "the cover is of sufficient strength to support a significant top load" in the independent claim, in combination with the other recited limitations in claims supported by this application, which are not found in the prior art of record.

Further (the applicant has presented in the "Remarks Concerning the Claims" at pages 7-10 dated 11/02/04) the meaning of "significant top load" has been defined in the specification (Paragraph 0009) "There is a further continuing need for a hard cover that protects the bed contents from the elements, prevents the stored goods from removal by undesired load shifting or theft, improves aerodynamics, and is capable of transporting a significant top cargo load. For purposes of this application, "significant load" is defined as exceeding 220 pounds, up to the rated limit of the pickup truck or vehicle. These rated weight limits vary according to vehicle and can be located on the vehicle's registration."

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications should be directed to Primary Examiner Kiran B. Patel whose telephone number is 703-305-0254. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F from 8:00 to 5:00. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is (703) 872-9306.
